

Beat of His Heart

During battle, the singers and those with instruments preceded the battle, declaring God's power and might. The Bride drummer goes before the Army, beating the cadences that tells them what to do, beating the rhythm of His heartbeat. No one is left behind if they follow His heart.

Green represents new life and healing, blue is the heavenly realm

