

Into His Chambers

Jesus: "Do you want Me when the work is done? Do you want to be consumed in My gaze? Do you desire to be undone, ruined? Do you seek Me enough to find Me? Are you desperate enough to know the real Me? The One I AM in My intimate chambers? Do you desire Me? Do you seek to be alone with Me? Remain.

The Bridal chamber is where you are vulnerable to Me and I to you. Where you allow My tenderness to wash over you. It's a place of purity and trust. A sweet exploring. I long to receive your sweet kisses and hold you close to Me. I AM lovesick for you. I hear you breathe in the silence. Your heart slows to beat with Mine. Beat to beat. Spirit to spirit. Just as your blood flowed thru My veins [as a human], so Mine flows thru you. Life to life. Heart to heart."

© 2011 Kristine Moore